

life|GROUPS
40's & 50's

Building Strong Families

Living Purposefully

4-12-17

What drives your life? What causes you to make the choices you make career, family, and schedule wise. What drives me gives purpose to my life and affects how I see and treat others. Ultimately, what drives me becomes my purpose. The question we have to ask is “do I have the right purpose and drives in my life?”

Wrong drives that create a wrong purpose:

1. Guilt
2. Resentment or anger
3. Fear
1. Materialism
2. Approval

How do I operate with a right purpose?

Exodus 4:1-4

What are benefits of a life fully submitted to the Lord?

1. Eph. 2:10
2. Isaiah 26:3-4
3. Eph. 5:15-17
4. Romans 8:6
5. 1Cor. 3:8

What would keep me from living a purposeful life?

- Pride
- Selfishness
- Ego
- Unbelief

Questions

What would you say drives your life? What would your family and close friends say?

Look at the list of wrong drives and discuss how each of those effects your life, home, relationships and choices?

Which drive in your life is the most difficult to turn over to the Lord? Why?

How do you think the example from Moses in Exodus 4 relates to you?

To live more purposefully is going to create battlefields in your life? What are they? How will you need to approach them?