

The Knowledge of God

God is omniscient. He knows everything; everything possible, everything actual; all events, all creatures; past, present and future.

Scripture used:	Context:
Daniel 2:22	Nothing escapes His notice. Nothing forgotten or hidden.
Psalms 139:6	His knowledge is perfect.
Hebrews 4:13	No creature is hidden from His sight.
Psalms 139:2-4	God knows all.
Ezk. 11:5	God knows your mind (thoughts).
Numbers 32:23	Even though man doesn't know your sin, God knows all of your sin.
Romans 8:7	The natural man hates God's perfection, but he does acknowledge it.
Hosea 7:2	The natural man can't remember that God remembers all his wickedness.
Job 23:10 Psalms 103:14 Psalms 139:23-24 John 21:17	Even when we backslide, God knows our path and will use us for His good. However, our heart should appeal, "search me O' God" knowing my heart and lead me in a way that is everlasting.
Isaiah 65:24 Psalms 147:5	God can take unlimited simultaneous request and prayer. His understanding is infinite. Should anything happen outside of His notice He would cease to be supreme.
Daniel 4:35	No one can stop God from being God.
Proverbs 19:21	Man makes a lot of plans; however, it is God's plan that will be.
Acts 15:18	He makes things known from the beginning.
James 1:17	What God decrees is certain to happen.
Revelations 1:1	God made known the things, yet to come.
Luke 24:44	A God who knew all things from beginning to end could only know such prophecy.
Genesis 8:22 Acts 2:23	Nothing has ever come to pass or ever will, just because God knew it. The cause of all things is the "will" of God. God's knowledge does not arise because they are or will be, but, because God has ordained them to be.

	Predetermine and foreknowledge of God was His plan that Christ would die by the hands of godless men.
Proverbs 15:3	The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

Point:

We should live our lives knowing that we don't live to please mankind, but live our lives under the eye's of God. We should remember as Hagar, "Thou O' God seest me"

Genesis 16:13 – The apprehension of God's infinite knowledge should fill the Christian with adoration. "The whole of my life stood open in His view from the beginning." He has foreseen your every fall, your every sin, your every backsliding; yet, nevertheless, He has fixed His heart upon you (as a true believer). Oh how this realization should make us bow in wonder and worship before Him.
